This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and as satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color.

It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff. It gives the head a cooling, soothing sensation of great comfort, and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing, nothing has been found so effectual or desirable.

A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes."

Price, One Dollar.

WHY BREWER FAILED.

Young Brewer of New Castle, has a turn for ledgerdemain, and the other night, when he was down at the club-room with a party of young fellows, the performances of the Davenport Brothers werre discussed. Brewer offered to bet that if any one in the crowd would tie him up on a chair, he would untie himself just like the Davenports. Mr. Eccles took the bet, and procuring a clothes-line, he put Brewer in the President's heavy arm chair and tied him fast. Then Brewer said he must be alone, and he told the party to go down to the drug store and wait for him, as he would be along in about five minutes. They went and waited; they waited for an hour and a half, and then, as the great knot unraveller did not appear, they concluded to go after him. As they ascended the staircase they heard groans. A little further up they heard Brewer holding an animated conversation with himself, during which he intimated clearly that he would regard it as a personal favor if somebody would burn the Davenport Brothers at the stake. Then he groaned again. When the party entered the room they found the chair had fallen forward on the rope annihilator, and as he was still tied fast, he was lying with his face on the floor and his back arched up so that it fit close to the back of the chair, while his nose was bleeding copiously. When they lifted him up he had a lump on his forehead as large as a rambo apple, and a swelled nose. When they asked him why he hadn't untied himself, he did not answer, but as soon as they set him free, he wiped himself with his coat sleeve, and doubling up his ensanguined fist, he shook it under Mr. Eccles' nose and exclaimed: "You white-livered, mean-spirited, chuckle-headed pirate. If I had known that you were going to put that half-hitch around the chair leg I'd've knocked the stuffin' out of you in the first place.—Then he went home, and the club resumed its deliberations.—Max Adeler.

JONES went to the deaf and dumb asylum the other day to inspect the institution. Upon entering he encountered a man, evidently an inmate, and he endeavored to explain to the man by making signs upon his fingers that he wanted to look through the place. The man also made signs which Jones could not comprehend. Then Jones made other and more elaborate signs which set the other man at work with great violence and for the next ten minutes they stood in the hall gesticulating and twisting their fingers, without being able to comprehend what the other meant. Finally Jones became angry, and in an outburst of wrath exclaimed:

"Oh, get out you idiot, I'm tired of bothering with you!"

Whereupon the man said: "That's just what I was going to say to you."

"Oh! you can speak, can you? Then why didn't you do so and not keep me standing motioning to you? I thought you were deaf and dumb."

"I came here to inspect the asylum," said Jones, and I took you for a patient."

"That's what I came here for, and thought you were an attendant," said the man.

Here Jones and the man shook hands, turned to a genuine attendant, and went away happy.

AN aged colored man of Mobile was recently asked if he could give a reason for the present poverty of that city and the surrounding country. "Oh, yes, was the reply, "now both the white gemmen and the darkies have done gone crazy on politics. A'fore de wah nigger worked and white folks had money, but now dont neither of dem do no work, and consequently neither of em got nough to buy corn bread."

Josh Billings says, "Herring is best at the sea nenerally; but those which inhabit the grocery alwus taste to me as though they had been fatted on salt. They want a deal of freshening before they're eatin, and also afterward. If I kin have plenty of herring for breakfast, I generally make the other two meals out of water."

FOR the first time since 1860 Kentucky will have a Republican Congressman. This is a little strange, in view of the fact that it has been a bad year for Republicans generally. With a Republican gain of a Congressman in Kentucky, the party ought not to be entirely discouraged.

It is useless to try and convince a person of a truth who will not listen to reason.

If you want a splendid suit, call at 13-dtf RACE'S.

Patented April 22d, 1873.

The Best Spring Bed

Ever Offered to the Public.

It is noiseless, elastic and durable. It is easily handled. A straw tick or any kind of a mattress can be used; but a mattress one-half the usual weight makes a better bed than the full sized one on any other spring. Each slat is independent of the others, and persons of unequal weight occupy a level surface. The slats are reversible, and so attached to the springs that they cannot creel over or be displaced in use. The springs produce a tension of about six inches on each slat, enabling one to use a slat three eighths of an inch in thickness without the least danger of breaking. It has an

by means of which the patient may be elevated to any position desired. This is done with the greatest ease and without inconvenience to the patient. DECATUR, ILLINOIS:

Saturday Evening, Nov. 28.

THE latest instance of Satan reproving sin—"Cold" slaw accusing somebody of being penurious.

A MOST daring case of abduction occurred on Wednesday last at Freemansburg, Pa. The child stealer entered the house of one Allan Glase, and took from a cradle beside the bed occupied by the father and mother their infant child.

AT a recent Shaker convention held in New York, Elder Evans took extreme ground in favor of woman's rights advocating not only female suffrage, but office holding. He coupled the claim, however, with a proviso that only unmarried women should be thus favored, and, to make matters even, he maintained that only unmarried men should hold office. Married men and women were held to be of no account. It strikes us that this is rather radical.

THE Choctaw and "Cold" slaw editor of the Consolidation insists that the editorials which appear in his paper "are original." We have always known that "cold" slaw was very pretentious, but never for a moment believed that he would presumptuous as to manifest any anxiety lest some one else might lay claim to his productions. They are so original that the "wayfaring man, though a fool," could not fail to discover the fact. Let your soul rest in peace on this score—there is no newspaper man living that would plagiarize your original editorials.

VICE-PRESIDENT Wilson will probably preside in the Senate during the winter. He has acted in this capacity only a few days since his term of service began, being advised by his physicians to avoid excitement and hard work. His appearance in the chair of the Senate will therefore be a bulletin of his restoration to health, at which good men of both political parties will rejoice.

WHAT is the world coming to when even our ideal heroes and historical idols are being constantly reduced to the level of common mortals? Even the late lamented Washington has come in for a share of this disenchanting process. A fire occurred the other day in Alexandria, Virginia, which destroyed an old junk shop, containing a large collection of old papers. Relic hunters overhauling the scattered documents found several valuable autographs of Washington, and among other things some receipted bills in which he was charged with such items as "seven packs of cards," "four barrels of porter," "ten gallons of rum," etc. Can it be possible that the Father of his Country—

THE work of purging the Federal offices in the South is being prosecuted vigorously, and perhaps too hastily. The removals of Postmasters in Texas were undoubtedly wisely made, and in a number of instances great changes for the better have been brought about. But there seems to be a purpose to clean out the whole Federal establishment, from Galveston to Newbern without making due allowance for the needs of the present incumbents; and in the process some mistakes are likely to be committed. This morning, for instance, it is reported that the removal of Marshal Healy, of Alabama, is decided upon. Marshal Healy is a resident of Chicago. He was in this city some months ago, and at that time expressed, and gave evidence of, the most devoted loyalty to the Republican party. Yet the charge against him now is lukewarmness to the party, and fear of social ostracism. Proper investigation will doubtless show that an enemy has slandered this gentleman. Too great care cannot be exercised in the removal of the officials in the South; for to be removed under the present circumstances is almost to be disgraced.—Chicago Tribune.

A Japanese lady has invented a means of reconciling husband and quarrelsome partners which should not be confined in practice to that distant part of the world. Having quarreled with her husband, she decided upon dying. Not content with merely relinquishing this dreary world, she endeavored to do it at the greatest possible sacrifice. She bit out her tongue, and awaited death. Fortunately for all parties, death did not arrive as soon as her husband. She was therefore saved. And now Nakamura has a model wife. When he complains of the toughness of his steak, she can merely look at him. Turning his face in another direction he can make the most satirical comments upon feminine economy. He can wonder why women now do learn how to keep down the grocer's bill, to save a portion of her husbands salary; can assure her that a little variety of delicacies for breakfast is something that any woman of sense could find; can grumble at the milliner's bill, and growl about the coal being all out, without receiving a word of remonstrance. He can tell her why the baby cries without being challenged to reply, and can enjoy himself without danger of a squall. Why should Japan monopolize such a boon?

"COLD" SLAW, AND OTHER SOUR DISHES.

The Bitor Bit.

The "Smart Aleck" of the Magnet and Tribune is on his ear again, and in yesterday's edition of his paper devotes a column of matter—undoubtedly original—to this office, its methods of spelling, its habits of plagiarism, etc. In this column the "Smart Aleck" does considerable sloshing around, to the evident danger and discomfort of his corporosity, which, like that of most southern gentlemen, can stand a good deal of rest. But, with a recklessness that is surprising in one of such mature years and a degree of vivacity that could scarcely be expected in a man of such grave and severe dignity, he lets himself loose on a variety of subjects and smashes the truth and the English language with the same terrific vigor. Less than a column would not answer on so important a theme, or series of themes, and the ollapodrida that he cooked up—strange to say, without a resort to the use of the scissors—ought to convince the most skoptical that our learned Alexander possesses culinary powers of the rarest kind. Indeed, we should not wonder if he were soon to appear as the rival of the admirable Professor Blot, and we'll wager a dish of his most savory hash that when he enters the lists against the great French cook, the Gallic artist will bide his very head in shame.

But, like a good many other artists of the kitchen, his education in other departments has been sadly neglected, and in the trifling matter of spelling he displays the characteristic faultiness of his brother hash mixers. After going through the editor of this paper like a whirlwind through a cane brake, he finally concocts this dish as the chef d' œuvre of his art:

And finally he undertook to get out a bill of fare for the ladies of the Christian church yesterday, and spelled cold slaw, "cole slaw," and being too penurious to print the bills over again the s. P. went through the whole lot and tried to change the e into a d with a lead pencil! This was a "slip of the pencil," truly.

Nobody but our "Smart Aleck" could have designed and carried out this brilliant triumph of the hash-producer's art, for, is it not an axiom with all true disciples of the gustatory science that "too many cooks spoil the broth?" A common kitchen girl would have ruined the whole dish, by referring for advice to that well known cook-book called Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, in which that ancient authority dispels all hopes of success, in the following "cold" and heartless words:

SLAW, n. [D. slaw.]
Cole-slaw is sliced cabbage, with or without vinegar.

Our "Smart Aleck," however, is bound down by no such antiquated notions as those of the despicable Connecticut Yankees who compiled and published that book. The boundless universe is his, for was he not educated in Missouri, and have not the sons of that noble state ever claimed the right to spell "jist as they darn please?" And is it not their sacred mission to go abroad through the land, enlightening its dark corners, and correcting the errors that have been handed down from Plymouth Rock? Who then shall say, after all, that our "Smart Aleck" has not as good a right to publish a cook book as Noah Webster, or aby other man?"

[By way of explanation we will say that the bill of fare spoken of by the great modern cook was printed at this office, and that the compositor was instructed by the editor to spell the word in question "cole-slaw." The first intimation we had of our error (?) was when we picked up the Magnet and Tribune of yesterday, and read the learned dissertation of our "Smart Aleck." If any one attempted to change the orthography with a lead pencil it must have been somebody who feasts daily upon the mysterious dishes served up by the great modern cook, and spoils his words after the Missouri fashion.]

Thursday being specially set apart by the powers that be as a day of feasting, the great modern cook must needs spread himself for the occasion, and his table of the next day contained, in addition to the huge platter of hash mentioned above, various side-dishes of equal merit. Among the rest is the following:

The s. P. of the "Old Reliable" quotes the well known Latin term, lapsus linguæ, and calls it "Choctaw!"

His knowledge of the dead language, therefore, seems to be about as limited as it is of the living.

To this we might reply, in the language of the Johnson Type Foundry's Specimen Book: "Quorsque tandem abutere," etc. (For the benefit of our ignorant readers we will remark, parenthetically, that the above quotation is not Choctaw, as they might innocently suppose, but real Latin, and that the whole sentence means, when freely rendered, "How long then, Oh, Aleck, wilt thou continue to thus make an unseemly exhibition of thyself?") The lapsus linguæ, which the great modern cook refers to, is, if we are to accept him as authority, Latin, but the lapsus liguæ which we had in mind, as it first appeared in his paper, was certainly Choctaw, at least we have been unable to find it in our dictionary of quotations which includes all languages except Choctaw—that dialect being reserved expressly for the use of the educated missionaries sent out by the state which lies on our southwestern border. If the great modern cook don't want his hash criticised he had better put in the proper ingredients.

In all probability our readers will conclude that we have devoted about as much attention to our "Smart Aleck" as his merits deserve—meritorious as he is. If, however, he thinks we have slighted him in any degree, we will, to use his own beautiful and chaste language, "make the amende honorable"—(that's not Choctaw, either, but a mixture of Modoc and Piute)—by again calling attention to his unequalled powers in the culinary line, his unique orthography and his "original" editorials.

THE old-line Whigs now hold the balance of power in the South, and they are in a position to avail themselves of it to their advantage, if they will. The Democrats now propose to throw off the conservative cloak and call themselves by their own name—Democrats. Of course this is mostly to put themselves in position to get office in the event their party can sustain its late victory. They do not propose to admit the Whigs to a division with them, and now is the opportunity for the Whigs to assert their independence, re-establish their organization, and make their balance of power felt in our section. Start the ball.—Norfolk Day Book.

THE Cincinnati Gazette says that such men as Senator Schurz cannot live in the Democratic party; "they cannot find a new one, and they will naturally drift back into the Republican party and help make it what it ought to be. Another year, therefore, will find the Republican party much stronger than in 1874, and the tidal wave in 1876 will be altogether different from what it was in October and November of the present year. It will carry into the Presidential chair a Republican, and restore the House of Representatives to the same party."

WHEN George the Third came to the throne in 1760 the national debt of England was £130,000,000. The American war raised it to £260,000,000. The insensate warfare against the French revolution made it £570,000,000, and by the time Napoleon was safely landed at St. Helena, the debt amounted to the inconceivable sum of £865,000,000. It may be safely asserted that every guinea of this debt was unnecessary.—James Parton.

PEORIA, Nov. 27.—The wholesale grocery house of Henry, Oakford & Fahnestock was entered some time last night, the safe blown or forced open, and about $2,000 in currency and bank checks stolen. Yesterday being Thanksgiving day, a large amount of money accumulated in the safe, as the banks were closed, and there was no opppportunity to deposit. It is thought that the burglary was committed by parties here, and that they were familiar with the premises. The matter is in the hands of detectives, who are busy at work endeavoring to ferret out the guilty parties.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The inmates of all charitable and correctional institutions in the city and vicinity were abundantly supplied with thanksgiving luxuries, except those on Blackwell's Island in charge of the Commissioners of Charities and Corrections, where the lack of funds prevented.

The strike of the longshoremen went into effect, this morning. About one thousand policemen are scattered along the shores of North and East rivers, and the police boat Seneca, is moored at a convenient distance to carry men to any point where there is trouble.

KANSAS City, Nov. 27.—Snow has been falling here since nine o'clock last night, and is now about ten inches deep. Information from the West is to the effect that it commenced falling in Colorado and Western Kansas about the same time. Trains were all on time up to 5 o'clock this morning, but apprehensions for to-morrow are expressed by railroad men.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 27.—Last night the steamer Idlewild, with Elwood Commandery of Springfield, Ill., and this morning the Thompson Dean, with Commandery of Central Iowa and Illinois, arrived at 10:30. The steamers left for New Orleans amid great enthusiasm.

VERDICT IN THE SAFE BURGLARY CASE.

Probability that the Jury was "Seen."

Great Snow Storm Through the West.

BURGLARY AT PEORIA.

Conviction of Murderers at Bloomington.

The Strike in New York.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—There is great anxiety here to know the verdict in the safe burglary case. It is reported, with some show of correctness, that several notes have passed between Harrington's friends, who are on watch outside the jury room, and the jury it is reported, stands ten for acquittal and two for conviction. Card playing, psalm singing and discussion occupied the time of the jury.

Rumors are prevalent that sign telegraphy is going on between the jury room and people of the Harrington party outside. At ten o'clock the jury retired for the night without a verdict.

LATER—At 11:30 this morning the jury came into the court room. The Judge questioned them upon the verdict, when the foreman said that they had agreed as to one of the defendants, but there was no reasonable probability that they would agree on the others. The Judge then cautioned those present against any demonstration when the verdict should be announced, when the foreman announced the following verdict: "We agree that Arthur B. Williams is innocent, and cannot agree upon Whitely and Harrington."

The jury were then discharged and the Judge ordered the Clerk to continue the case till next term. The court then adjourned.

A colored juror divulged the fact that on the first ballot they stood eight for acquittal to four for conviction in Harrington's case, nine for acquittal and three conviction in Whitely's case, and Craig stood like a rock for conviction, though cursed, reviled and intimidated, by every plan opposing jurors could devise.

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—The following is an extract from an official dispatch of Col. Miles, received at Lieutenant-General Sheridan's headquarters this morning. It refers to the girls whose rescue from the Indians was announced some time ago:

"During the fight two white girls were recaptured from the Indians. It appears the sisters, Adelaide and Julia German, aged five and seven years respectively, were captured in Kansas, en route from Georgia to Colorado. They state that their father, mother, brother and one sister were murdered, and that they and two elder sisters were held as prisoners. They have no positive knowledge of their sisters whereabouts. Their story of woe and suffering is simply too horrible to relate. They were almost naked and nearly starved. They are now under the charge of Surgeon Waters, and will receive every care and attention, and, when strong enough to endure the journey, will be forwarded to Leavenworth. I most earnestly recommend that ample annual provision be made for these children by the government out of the annuity appropriation for the benefit of the Cheyenne Indians." Gen. Pope in forwarding this statement, heartily concurs in Col. Miles' recommendation.

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Reports having been published in the Western papers of expeditions of white men, fitted out at Laramie City and Fort Sanders, having penetrated to the Black Hills country, General Sherman ordered an investigation through the officers commanding along the borders of the Black Hills. The reports of these officers show that no white men have entered that territory since the expedition of General Custer. Col. Palmer, commanding the post at Fort Laramie, reports that he was informed that a company of prospectors under Colonel Grow, left Laramie City recently and had succeeded in finding what they believe to be good diggings within fifty miles of that post, upon the Big Laramie river. This is not in the Indian country.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 27.—Between 11 and 12 o'clock last night Mr. Fogel was passing along North First street, and when between Madison and Mason he was assaulted by two masked highwaymen, who knocked him down, and while in an insensible condition rifled his pockets of some $35 in money, and took from him a bundle which he was carrying in his hand.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Nov. 27.—The trial of John Roach, and his brother Patrick Roach, for the murder of Byron Dunlap, which occurred at Padua, Ill., about six weeks ago, was concluded in the McLean Circuit Court to-day. The prisoners were sentenced, the former for twenty years and the latter one year in the penitentiary.

INDISPUTABLE EVIDENCE.

ST. LOUIS, ILL., July 8, 1874.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

—I wish to add my testimony to the wonderful curative properties of your Alt. Ext. or Golden Medical Discovery. I have taken great interest in this medicine since I first used it. I was badly afflicted with dyspepsia, liver deranged and an almost prostration of the nervous system. So rapid and complete did the Discovery effect a perfect cure that it seemed more like magic and a perfect wonder to myself, and since that time we have never been without a bottle of the Discovery and Purgative Pellets in the house. They are a solid, sound family physician in the house and ready at all times to fly to the relief of sickness—without charge. We have never had a doctor in the house since we first began the use of your Pellets and Discovery. I have recommended the use of these medicines in several severe and complicated cases arising from, as I thought, an impure state of the blood, and in no one case have they failed to more than accomplish all they are claimed to do. I will only mention one remarkable (though I could give you dozens) Henry Coster, furniture dealer of this place, who was one of the most pitiful objects ever seen, his face swollen out of shape, scales and eruptions without ends extending to his body, which was completely covered with blotches and scales. Nothing that he took seemed to effect it a particle. I finally induced him to try a few bottles of the Golden Medical Discovery, with daily use of the Pellets, assuring him it would surely cure him. He commenced its use some six weeks since, taking two Pellets each night for a week, then one each night, and the Discovery as directed. The result is, to-day his skin is perfectly smooth, and the scaly eruptions gone. He has taken some seven or eight bottles in all, and considers himself cured. This case had baffled the skill of our best physicians. Messrs. Dunsford & Co., druggists, of this place, are selling largely of your medicines and the demand steadily increases, and they give perfect satisfaction in every case.

Respectfully, W. H. CHAMPLIN,

CITY DEPARTMENT.

..Fresh Oysters received at Imboden's every day.

..Country people are not numerous in town to-day.

..Get out your cutters, boys, and sharpen up the runners.

..The sound of the merry sleigh-bell awakens a response in belles of another kind.

..Choice apples at Neidermyer's.

..The small boys in the city are out to-day with their little sleds, hitching on to sleighs and taking rides.

..Several men out of work have found employment to-day in cleaning the snow off the sidewalks for our citizens.

..Stationery of all kinds, at the emporium of I. J. Davis & Co.

..The three holidays enjoyed by the school children this week have given them "a rest," so that they will be prepared to go to business on Monday with a vim.

..Superior canned fruit at Jack & Son's.

..If you leave your coal out doors now, it will go further than any other way of keeping it. One man says he has known some of his fuel to go as far as a mile in a single night.

..J. Ullrich & Co. have a splendid lot of canned and dried fruit.

..The livery stable men have rigged up all their old sleighs and cutters, and will have them out to-day. Sleighing is good, and a large number of our citizens are taking advantage of it for a good sleigh ride.

..Notwithstanding the severe storm which prevailed last evening Cal. Wagner's Minstrels had a full house. The performance was first-class, of its kind, and pleased the audience "muchly."

..If you want to know whether your grandmother was cross-eyed, or where your great uncle stood in his spelling-class, just run for office, and you will know it all.

..Kitchen is still at the tea business, and sells the best to be found in the market.

..The Moultrie County Chronicle speaks of the political editor of the Magnet and Tribune as "a common tater." Bless your soul, Cicero, he isn't a "tater" at all, he's "cold" slaw.

..Large flocks of snow birds made their appearance this forenoon, which, according to the notions of weather-mongers, augurs a cold snap.

..Trade at all points is dull to-day, owing to the fact that people are kept at home by the storm.

..The best and largest stock of Corsets, at the lowest prices, you will find at Goldburg's. 24-d4w1

..J. P. Marsh is still in business, and is turning out some of the best fitting fine boots that ever graced the feet of mortals. Try him once.

..Two weeks from Monday next begins the December term of the circuit court. Unless continued several important criminal trials will take place. There are also several civil suits of considerable magnitude pending.

..Everybody that tries Andy Kepler's cigars say they are the best in use.

..An addition has been made to the depot platform at the I. & I. C. R. R. track. This is an improvement which has been long needed, and now baggage can be got from the train to the platform without being dragged across several feet of cinders.

..Those fellows who have idled away their time during the pleasant weather on dry goods boxes, found them rather poor protection last night. Now we don't want anybody to suffer, but we are of the opinion that if anybody deserves to lie cold at night, it is the lazy biped that won't work when it is pleasant weather and there is enough to do.

..McCreary still feeds the hungry at his place of business, in giving them a good, square meal at their homes by sending all kinds of fruit and vegetables, with choice butter and fresh eggs.

..The winter is here. Let those who are rich remember that it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for them to enter the kingdom.—So let them give their surplus to the poor and go to heaven in a creditable manner.

..Everybody should visit W. H. Reeme's grocery store, near the railroad crossing, on Water street. He keeps choice goods, and sells them cheap.

..The Moultrie County Chronicle of yesterday, comes to us with an illustrated column. One cut represents a pair of seissors, open, and underneath are the following lines:

The above engraving is said to be a life-like representation of the features of the editor of the Decatur Magnet and Tribune. Such an open expression of countenance is very rarely seen outside of Decatur. The editorials of that paper are, like its editor, double-pointed, and sometimes sharp when he has been "whetted."

..Yesterday a couple of families of emigrants, in a state of almost total destitution, drew up in front of Davis' book store. About a half dozen bony colts and horses were following. These the owner offered for an inconsiderable sum, but he could find no purchaser. He says he will have to find some hovel soon to live in until the weather grows milder.

..Mr. John A. Lehman, whose shop was destroyed by fire on Thursday night, informs us that his loss will amount to about $400, on which there was no insurance. He thinks that the fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary, and it is a little singular that the stable of Mr. Apple, which was burned about three weeks ago, also contained a lot of hay belonging to Mr. Lehman.

..A protracted meeting is in progress at each of the colored churches in the city. The meetings are quite fully attended, and a good degree of interest has been awakened. We understand that several conversions have taken place. A number of white folks attend nearly every evening.

..This is a good time for the city council to pass an ordinance, requiring everybody to clear the snow from their walks immediately after a storm, in default of which it should be done by the street supervisor, and charged up to the owners or occupants of the premises.

..Capt. W. J. Brown is still fully up with the times in the drug business.—He keeps a choice, fresh stock, together with all approved patent medicines.—Toilet articles, ad infinitum, may be found here, all of superior quality.

..People should clean the snow from the walks against their premises. By so doing they are contributing to their own comfort and that of the public at the same time.

..Regular trains commence running between this city and Peoria, over the Illinois Midland Railway, on Monday next.

..Elder Wilson, of Illiopolis, will preach at the Christian church to-morrow.

..Some of our grocerymen are using sleighs for delivering goods to-day.

No Improvement.—In the last two days there has been no improvement in John Smith's condition. That lingering disease, typhoid fever, has now taken a firm hold on his system, and an ordinary man would hardly recover from it. But as Mr. Smith has a strong constitution, his physicians and friends feel confident that he will soon recover.

On The European Plan.—The only hotel in town on the European plan is kept by Harry Holmes on Front Street, near the depot, where meals can be procured at all hours of the day and night. Fare is first class and prices reasonable.

Badly Burned.—On Wednesday morning Jimmy Shenton, a son of a rolling mill hand, fell against a red-hot stove and severely burned his face and neck while playing with his brothers and sisters. Little Jimmie screamed at the pain his burns caused him, and within a few minutes the house was filled with excited neighbors who thought the child was killed. Fortunately some of these excited individuals knew how to treat burns, and in a short time the little sufferer was relieved and rested quietly.—He is doing as well as can be expected, and his burns are healing slowly. It is feared a great ugly scar will be on his face during his whole lifetime.

Wanted—At the St. James Hotel, a good female cook, to whom good wages will be paid. 25-d3t

Lawsuit Terminated.—The case of Mrs. Smelsley against Hacket & Keefe and five others, for damages sustained on account of liquor sold by defendants to her late husband, which has been on trial at Sullivan for the last two days, was terminated yesterday evening—the jury returning a verdict for plaintiff, and assessing damages at twenty-eight hundred dollars.

The Illinois State Horticultural Society.—The Illinois State Horticultural Society will hold its annual meeting for 1874 in Rouse's Hall, Peoria, Dec. 9, 10, 11 & 12. Lectures will be given, papers read and discussions held upon nearly all topics connected with Scientific and Practical Horticulture, viz:

Orchard culture, vineyard culture, berry culture, or fruit gardening, utilizing fruits, ornamental and timber trees, ornamental and landscape gardening, botany and vegetable physiology, entomology, ornithology, geology and soils, and meteorology.

The subject of reorganization of the Society, upon the terms of the new law relating to this matter, will be acted upon. Samples of fruit are solicited; especially of new and promising varieties. All horticulturists are invited to attend.

By order of the President.

O. B. GALUSHA, Secretary.

The Question Answered—"How Linn & Scrugge employ so many salesmen and sell goods cheap." They keep the largest stock of dry goods in Decatur—they retail more goods than any other Dry Goods House in the United States, according to population, and their expenses are less in proportion to sales. Besides they are thus enabled to buy most of their goods of first hands and by the case and package, which gives them great advantage over small dealers.

THE MASONIC EXCURSIONISTS.

EXCURSION STEAMER IDLEWILD,
OHIO RIVER, NEAR PADUCAH, KY.,
November 25, 1874.

EDITORS REPUBLICAN:—We left Springfield yesterday morning at 6 o'clock, sharp, 133 in number; arrived at Shawneetown at 5 o'clock, took boat and steamed down the river some distance, when we laid up for the night.—We took an early start this beautiful morning, and at this writing we are making fast time, and our company is made up of as merry and sociable a set of ladies and Sir Knights as were ever thrown together in the same space.

We expect to make Cairo by night, where we will meet several other excursion steamers. We have a fine band of music on board, discoursing music at intervals, while the ladies and Sir Knights are around the card table, and those not so engaged are enjoying themselves in the dance. We expect to make Memphis on Friday morning, when I shall write again. Our boat (the "Idlewild,") is a fine small steamer, with excellent accommodations, and gentlemanly officers and help.

Yours, B. H. CASSELL.

CITY COUNCIL.

A called meeting of the city council was held last evening to consider the matter of extending the time specified in the contract with James Bering for commencing a coal shaft. The time was extended six months beyond that specified in the contract.

The matter of making ditches on certain property in the west part of the city, was referred to the committee on public improvements.

The matter of furnishing water for the engines of the I. & I. C. Railroad wus referred to the committee on fire and water, in conjunction with the Mayor and superintendent of the water works, with instructions to contract at a sum not less than is paid by the I., B. & W. Railroad.

A committee was appointed to confer with a committee of the Citizens' Association with reference to making arrangements for a banquet to be given to R. G. Hervey, Esq., President of the Illinois Midland Railroad, upon the eve of his departure for Europe, on business connected with the interests of his road.

Kid Gloves—the largest and best stock in the city, sold very cheap, at 24-d4w1 GOLDBURG'S.

Religious Notice.—Rev. Dr. Cross, of Jacksonville, will officiate at the Episcopal Church to-morrow, on exchange with the rector, Rev. W. W. DeWolf. Doctor Cross is spoken of as a clergyman of superior abilities, and many of our people will no doubt avail themselves of the opportunity to hear him.

Christian Church.—In the absence of the pastor Elder John L. Wilson will preach at this church to-morrow morning and evening. Elder Haynes is to preach the dedicatory sermon of the new Christian Church at Oreana, at 11 o'clock to-morrow.

Religious Notice.—Rev. M. W. Taber will preach in the Universalist church on next Sabbath, (Nov. 29th), morning and evening. After the morning service there will be a business meeting of the society. Let there be a full attendance. 25-d3t

Runaway — Thumb Crushed. — This morning at about nine o'clock as James Pettyjohn, living 3½ miles east of Decatur, was coming into town on a fellow granger's wagon, the team became frightened near the city limits and ran away, throwing out Pettyjohn who lighted on the ground just in time to have two of the wheels pass over one of his thumbs and crush the bones. The thumb was broken at both joints and Dr. Moore who set the broken bones is of the opinion that his thumb will always be stiff and almost useless to him. Pettyjohn is an unlucky man.—He has met with many a severe accident in the past few years. Two years ago he had his skull caved in by a kick from a horse, which was thought enough to kill him. Hardly had he recovered from this when several of his ribs were broken and dislocated by a fall. In the last year many minor accidents have befallen him, but he says he was not born to be killed by an accident and he has no fears in that direction.

The horses attached to the wagon went tearing through the eastern part of the city at break-neck speed, but fortunately they were caught when near the I. C. R. R., before any material damage had been done to the wagon.

Games.—The largest assortment of Games for children and grown people ever shown in the city, at LITSINBERGER & SUTTON'S. 26-3taw

Reward of Merit.—The U. S. Government has given not only to Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, but to his True Flavoring Extracts, the preference, and large quantities are shipped to its military posts. No more, we say, than it deserved, for it truly has proved itself in our family all that we desire, making bread, biscuits, and cakes better than any other we have used, and just so have we found his Flavorings of Lemon, Almond, etc., as pure, natural, and strong as can be made. Try these articles, ladies, and see if you do not find them superior to anything of their kind in the market. 28-d&w 1w

The Very Best.—We are agents for the sale of Macneale & Urban's fire and burglar proof Safes—the very best that are made. GEO. S. DURFEE & BRO. 18-d3w

FUNERAL OF JAMES K. CARTER.

The funeral services of Uncle 'Jimmy' Carter were quite largely attended yesterday afternoon. The Masonic brethren turned out in good numbers, and at about 11 o'clock marched in procession to the residence of Mr. E. V. Falconer, son-in-law of the deceased, where the remains were. Taking the body in charge they bore it to the Christian Church, where, as interesting and impressive service was conducted by Elder N. S. Haynes, whose remarks on the occasion were exceedingly appropriate, and of such a character as must have been consoling to the friends. The church was well filled by citizens who wished to testify of their respect for a good man. At the conclusion of the services the body was again taken in charge by the Masonic fraternity and borne to Greenwood Cemetery, where it was committed to the grave in due form according to Masonic rites.

The Largest and Best assorted stock in Notions, Fancy Goods, ready made Underclothing, in muslin and merino, you can find at Goldburg's, very cheap. 24-d4w1

TWO BURGLARIES IN ONE NIGHT—A THIRD ATTEMPTED.

Some time last night Chas. A. Ewing, Esq., was awakened by a noise he supposed to be in the lower part of his house. Thinking it was his father-in-law, who is stopping with him and fearing the old gentleman was sick, he got up to see what was the matter. As he entered the front room from which the noise proceeded he discovered a man outside at the bay window with something like a chisel trying to pry up the sash. Mr. E. at once procured his revolver, and stepping to within about six feet of the window, called the fellow to stand aside and fired.

The charge passed through the pane of glass but missed the intruder. Mr. E. then stepped to the front door and sent the contents of another barrel of his revolver after the chap who was making himself scarce through the front gate, and escaped apparently unharmed.

Mr. Ewing then stepped into Mrs. Wilkinson's house, which is next to his, and found that the family was in great alarm, on account of some person having effected an entrance to the house and taken away some articles of jewelry, but the family was aroused too soon for the robbers to make very extensive appropriations, and the articles taken were comparatively trifling in value.

Another house was entered in the northwest part of the city, the name of whose occupant our reporter was unable to learn. The robber here took the proprietor's overcoat, and left his own.—Some few other articles of trifling value were taken.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Charles A. Carter was taken suddenly sick at the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. E. V. Falconer, on the day of his father's funeral, so that he could not follow the remains to the church and grave. He is not yet able to be moved to his own home.

Among the registered guests at the St. Nicholas are the following: G. W. Spencer, Omaha; G. A. Lewis, Bloomington; G. H. Gaines, Terre Haute, Ind; J. E. Arnold, Moawequa; W. Wynn, Edgar county; W. J. For Several Years numerous experiments have been making for burning our soft coal successfully in a self-feeding magazine stove, that would require the fire to be built but once during the season, and one in which fire could be kept from ten to thirty-six hours, without replenishing. Some of these experiments have proven partially successful, but none a perfect success, excepting the invention of the "OMAHA." We notice this stove is for sale by CLOSE & GRISWOLD. tf
